TASTING NOTES:

Peter Palmer: 2019 Bonaccorsi syrah, Larner Vineyard, Ballard Canyon

Dark purple/black to the rim, which shows some pink highlights. Smells thick and rich and powerful, on the riper side of syrah, full of blue/black fruits and deep black raspberry, Hoisin sauce and meaty, ground black pepper. Aromas are echoed in mouth, with a zesty beam of apricot-like acid and some fine tannins to add structure. Mouth-filling wine; very drinkable and enjoyable now, but youthful and simple (in a fine way).
